Cafe By Puffing Roll. Explains.

NEW YORK, July 14 .- The idea that the French are all very naughty, received a jolt today at the Hotel Bresdiste, who arrived in this country recently for a visit, went to that hostelry with Miss Lillian Arnold, for lunch. Just as the waiter brought their coffee Miss Arnold went to the women's waiting room to write a note.

Mme. La Seaver, shortly after that, was noticed by a waiter to be smoking a long cigarette. He went to her immediately.

"We cannot permit ladies to smoke in here," he said.

The French woman cannot under stand English. She shook her head and kept on puffing. The waiter next summoned C. C. Nobles, assistant manager of the hotel.

"Please don't smoke in here," waid mit smoking by ladies."

The hotel man was in despair. At that juncture, however, Miss Arnold returned. Mr. Nobles explained to her that he wished Mme. La Seaver to stop smoking. Miss Arnold explained in French to her companion. Mme. La Seaver immediately put her eigarette aside. Then she said a few words in French to Miss Arnold which caused the latter to smile.

"She is very thankful to you." explained Miss Arnold to Mr. Nobles, "She says she had read that it was the submitted for Saturday marketers:

plained Miss Arnold to Mr. Nobles.

"She says she had read that it was the custom for American women to smoke in cafes and was merely trying to do the right thing. That was the first cigarette she ever smoked in her life."

Day Portrait Minority Not Likely to Report

The minority members of the House Committee on Expenditures in the State Department have but one day in which to file their report on the Day portrait matter. As members Wedemeyer of Michigan, and Tilson of Connecticut are absent, and as the ranking minority member Mr. Davis, has sign ed the majority report, it looks today as if there would be no controverting statement to that of the Democrats, whose sentiments were expressed in the report made by Representative Dent of Alabama. The ten days for which Mr. Wedemeyer asked so that the minority might make a report, will expire to-

Mr. Dent said today he hopes to bring the report of the committee before the House in such a way that it must in-evitably have discussion by the mem-bers next Wednesday. He had a con-ference with Chairman Hamilin, of the committee, and today said their conclu-sions pointed that way. His report recommended the dismissal of W. H. recommended the dismissal of W. H. Michael, chief clerk at the time the Day portrait was paid for, and now consul general at Calcutta, and of Thomas W. Morrison, disbursing clerk of the State Department. Mr. Dent's report also embodied a statement that the State Department had no authority to utilize the secret fund for the nurchase or nav. ts secret fund for the purchase or payment of portraits.

Funeral of Mrs. Smith Held This Afternoon

Funeral services were held this afternoon for Mrs. Florence Nightingale Kendall Smith, who died at the National Homeopathic Hospital Wednesday morning, after an illness of two weeks. Services were held at the residence of her brother-in-law, C. S. Woodin, 1728 Fifteenth street northwest at 4 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. W. V. Tudor, of Richmond, Va. Burlal was in Glenwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Smith was born in Richmond, and spent several years in Washington. She has friends and relatives in both cities.

Less Than a Microbe a Drink, Water Record

Washington consumers of Potomac water are getting less than one microbe per drink. This is an extremely low average.

According to the figures of Major Langfitt, in charge of the Washington Acqueduct, the high run of microbes in the water is nine to the cubic centimeter. Some days they only run three to the cubic centimeter.

There are few cities in the United States having water of so high an average of purity. The purification is ac-North Capitol street.

STOCK MARKET DULL AND HEAVY, WITH PRICES AT A HIGHER LEVEL.

ket is again dull and without special features. Weather reports, the business situation, London markets, the prosed early to higher prices and a more active market. But professional traders, and there are no others now, seemed to feel that the walting game is better than efforts to turn prices, and so matters were allowed to drift through the morning with a small volume of business and small price changes.

business and small price changes.

The market is strong, and prices are very slowly rising, and with the big short interest in stocks a sudden and sharp upturn is always among the possibilities. The shorts will rush to cover at the first show of a rise, and that will naturally send prices soaring. This may take place at any moment, or it may be delayed for days, while traders wait to see what will be the final outcome of the corn crep and the legislative program in Congress.

some trade, without large fluctuation in prices.

The Gates stocks were weakest of the list, owing to the serious condition of John W. Gates in Paris.

After the noon hour stocks made fractional changes mostly into higher territory. Business was dull, and conditions unchanged. Trading was entirely too see what will be the final outcome of the corn crep and the legislative program in Congress.

NEW YORK, July 14.—The stock market is again dull and without special features. The Safest Investments

Are those that do not fluctuate during dis-turbed conditions of the money er stock mar-kets. First deed of trust notes (first mort-gages), well secured on real estate in the District of Columbia, constitute "gilt edge" investments. They do not depend upon the financial responsibility of individuals or ogs-porations for their stability and are exempt from taxation as personal property. We can supply such investments in amounts from $500 upward. Send for booklet, "Concerning Leans and Investments."
